All inmates will have access to a copy of the Department's inmate rules and regulations manual for the institution in which they are housed. If the inmate is unable to read and/or speak English, one of the institutional personnel shall ensure the rules and regulations are read to him in a manner that will ensure his comprehension.

Inmates will also adhere to the procedures contained in the institution's rules and regulations.

Violations of attempted violations of the rules and regulations may lead to disciplinary action which, if taken, shall be implemented in the manner prescribed by the Department.

Inmate behavior in violation of local, state, Federal laws may be reported to the proper legal authorities for judicial action.
