05.00.00. PROCEDURE

The Division of Institutional Services and the Department's Medical Provider will operate under the Department of Correction Administrative Policy No. 209, Position Management. The Facility Health Authority will evaluate all medical staff positions and assure that job duties and responsibilities are accurately reflected within the position class code.

Each facility will have a job description for each individual position that specifies the functional responsibilities associated with that position.

Civil Service and/or Idaho Personnel Commission job classifications are not acceptable for individual duty station procedures.

The position descriptions will be reviewed and updated every two years.
