

The Expenditure Matrix has been removed because does not accurately reflect our current practices and processes.

If you have questions regarding current practices regarding recognition and awards for your employees, please contact the fiscal unit for guidance.